

The _____ Game (adjective)

Today was the day of the big game, and I was so _____ ! I'm the star of the _____ (emotion) (city)

_____ team. I took a shower and brushed my teeth. I brush my teeth twice a day to keep them (animal, plural)

healthy and clean. I always start my day with a good breakfast - I especially like to eat _____ (cereal)

with _____ and low-fat milk. I try to always eat healthy foods that represent the five main food groups.
(fruit)

And if I'm thirsty, instead of _____, I choose water or low-fat milk. After breakfast, I visited my dentist's office.
(beverage)

His hygienist _____ cleaned my teeth, and then Dr. _____ examined all _____ (first name) (last name) (number) of my teeth and applied sealants. Dr. _____ said that the sealants will protect my teeth from decay.
(last name)

Finally, it was time for the _____ game. My _____ drove me to the field (game) (family member) in our family's _____. I put on my _____ uniform and put in my mouthguard.
(type of vehicle) (color)

I wear a mouthguard to protect my teeth while I'm playing - I don't want my permanent teeth knocked out!

The game was _____ - I scored _____ goals, and we won the _____ state championship.
(adjective) (number) (state)

Our team was now number _____ in _____ !
(number) (country)

At night I went home, ate dinner, and brushed and flossed my teeth. I got into my _____ (adjective)

_____ bed and drifted off to sleep. It was a _____ day!
(adjective) (adjective)

